Legal:

Empiric Institutional, LLC (EI) is a registered investment adviser with the U.S. Securities Exchange Commission and is notice filed in various states. EI may only conduct business in those states and international jurisdictions where we are registered, notice filed, or where we qualify for an exemption or exclusion from registration requirements. The purpose of this web site is to provide general information on our products and services only and should not be construed as a solicitation to effect, or attempt to effect, either transactions in securities or the rendering of personalized investment advice over the Internet. Any communications with prospective clients residing in states or international jurisdictions where EI and its advisory affiliates are not registered or licensed shall be limited so as not to trigger registration or licensing requirements.

Past performance is no guarantee of future results. Foreign investments offer diversifying characteristics, but also involve greater risks than investing in securities of U.S. issuers, including currency, political, and stock specific risks. Investors should consider all factors, including investment objectives and risk tolerance, before investing.
